HAWAII-BASED CURRENT AFFAIRS REVEALS TOP EVENT TRENDS FOR 2010

HONOLULU, HI (January 28, 2010) – With the New Year come forecasts for fashion, food, entertainment and more from experts within a number of different fields and industries. Current Affairs, Hawaii's premier full-service event planning and production company, has revealed its list of top event trends for 2010, including:

- Touchstones ~ incorporating items that will remind people of the past, such as different eras (50s and 60s).
- Bright Colors ~ vivid and vibrant colors that imbue fun and energy.
- Salad Martini Bar ~ rather than ordering a drink from the bar, mixologists will serve a variety of salads in a martini glass instead.
- Down-home ~ folksy, homey, family-oriented themed events that include a menu filled with comfort foods and drinks.
- Homespun Medley ~ for entertainment, there is a musical trend towards combining different artists together and mixing genres such as acoustic rock with jazz.
- Play Off Imagination ~ concepts that include fantasy, magic and supernatural forms.
- Interactive Entertainment ~ create games similar to reality shows such as "So You Think You're Smarter Than A...?"
- Total Immersion ~ keeping Guests immersed at the event through the entertainment, food and décor.

As Hawaii's premier full-service event planning and production company, Current Affairs has earned a reputation for its exquisite taste, unrivaled creativity, personalized approach, and supreme attention to detail. Founded in 1984, the company has created thousands of exclusive events combining unique entertainment concepts with fabulous décor and design at memorable locations for a wide variety of private and corporate
