

CATHOLIC CHARITIES HAWAII

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
MEDIA CONTACTS:

Caroline Witherspoon
or Scott Ishikawa
Becker Communications, Inc.
(808) 533-4165

“FINANCIAL FEUD: BATTLE OF THE BANKS” FUNDRAISER TO BENEFIT CATHOLIC CHARITIES HAWAII YOUTH PROGRAM

Hawaii’s Four Major Banks Face Off on August 8

HONOLULU (July 30, 2019) – Your Generation of Catholic Charities Hawaii (YourGen) – a fund-raising group comprised of Hawaii’s leading young professionals – presents its inaugural “Financial Feud: Battle of the Banks” on August 8.

The fundraiser runs from 5:30 to 8 p.m. at WorkPlay, Kaka’ako’s newest lounge and venue at 814 Ilaniwai Street. Sponsored teams from First Hawaiian Bank, American Savings Bank, Bank of Hawaii and Central Pacific Bank will square off in this “Family Feud” style competition.

Proceeds from the event will benefit Catholic Charities Hawaii’s Intensive Clinical Services (ICS), a youth-based program providing services for families with children living with mental health issues. ICS strives to fill the gap that traditional outpatient services cannot, to help youth regain healthy futures.

The $25 admission includes light pupu, two drink tickets and an evening of fun and networking. Tickets are available at Eventbrite at <https://bit.ly/2FZy3Ef> or at the door on event night.

YourGen was established in 2018 to build awareness of the organization’s mission with future stakeholders.

About Catholic Charities Hawaii

Serving Hawaii since 1947, Catholic Charities Hawaii offers assistance to people in need, regardless of faith and culture. Long trusted in the community for its innovative and professional approach to human services, Catholic Charities Hawaii provides much needed services to 40,000 clients statewide through over 30 programs. Catholic Charities Hawaii is fully accredited by the Council of Accreditation. They are a partner agency of the Aloha United Way and a member of the nationwide Catholic Charities USA organization.

For more information, visit www.catholiccharitieshawaii.org.