KAHALA NUI HIRES KEVIN VALERA AS HOUSEKEEPING SUPERVISOR

HONOLULU – Kahala Nui has hired Kevin Valera as part of the management team as housekeeping supervisor.

Prior to joining the continuing care retirement community, Valera successfully ran his own business. He brings over 10 years of hotel management experience which he received while working at Disney's Grand Floridian Beach and Resort, Kahala Hotel & Resort, Ihilani Resort and Spa and Hilton Hawaiian Village Waikiki Beach Resort.

Valera studied at the University of Hawai'i and earned his degree in tourism and hotel management.

About Kahala Nui

Located in Waialae-Kahala, Kahala Nui is a senior living retirement community featuring graciously designed private apartment homes for independent living as well as its Hi'olani Care Center at Kahala Nui for assisted living, nursing, and memory support. The community models the Life Care concept of aging, a lifestyle and health care program designed to enhance and promote mental, physical, and spiritual wellness throughout life and is owned by the not-for-profit Kahala Senior Living Community, Inc.
